THE CEREMONY

Outdoors: The Point, Garden, Deck

Indoors: Sherwood Lounge

We had the privilege of hosting our winter wedding at the Sherwood Inn this past February. While Muskoka is often thought of as a summer destination, our wedding weekend proved that Muskoka and the Sherwood Inn can be enjoyed regardless of the season. With exclusive use of the resort and its amenities, the weekend felt like a true cottage experience among friends and family. The Sherwood Inn staff were extremely helpful. From anticipating guests needs to joining in on the wedding fun, we cannot thank them enough for their professional hospitality. Our guests were most impressed by the food throughout the weekend – Chef Jose Caneira did not disappoint. The Sherwood Inn offered us the perfect venue to host our intimate winter wedding and we couldn't be happier with our choice!

We had a truly fantastic wedding weekend and it would never have been possible without your brilliant organisation and knowledge.

Everything went so smoothly and we're particularly impressed you managed to change the weather forecast for us at such short notice!!

MEET OUR EXECUTIVE CHEF

Born and raised in northern Ontario, Chef Everett is no stranger to fresh local food. Spending summers on his grandfather's farm he gained a respect and passion for food and farming - which is where he discovered his love for the culinary arts. Driven by a passion for the outdoors and sourcing local ingredients, Chef Everett strives to use the freshest local ingredients available during each season.

Chef Everett began working as a dishwasher at age 14 and was cooking by age 15. His passion for food started early as he excelled in the kitchen and was soon making everything on the menu. This inspired Chef Everett to attend culinary school at Canadore College in North Bay, Ontario. Upon graduating with a Culinary Management diploma, he began working at the Grandview Resort in Huntsville under the guidance of Executive Chef Ken Schulz - eventually achieving his Red Seal certification in 2009. Since then Chef Everett has grown to oversee the culinary operations at both The Lake Joseph Club and Sherwood Inn.
